Resolution Honoring the Life and Legacy of Rhonda Dixon, CNM
Midwives of Color Council, American College of Nurse Midwives

WHEREAS, Rhonda Dixon, Certified Nurse Midwife (CNM), was a dedicated and compassionate healthcare provider whose life's work centered on advancing equitable, respectful, and culturally responsive care for women, families, and communities; and

WHEREAS, she served as a tireless advocate for reproductive justice, maternal health, and the dignity and well-being of Black women and other communities of color, addressing disparities and working to eliminate inequities in maternal and newborn outcomes; and

WHEREAS, Rhonda Dixon was an active and valued member of the Midwives of Color Committee, contributing her voice, leadership, mentorship, and wisdom to strengthen the profession and uplift current and future generations of midwives of color; and

WHEREAS, her commitment extended beyond clinical care into education, mentorship, and community engagement, where she inspired colleagues, students, and peers through her generosity, integrity, and unwavering dedication; and

WHEREAS, her legacy lives on in the countless lives she touched—through births attended, families supported, and midwives mentored—leaving an enduring impact on the profession of midwifery and the communities she served;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Midwives of Color Council honors and celebrates the life, service, and legacy of Rhonda Dixon, CNM, recognizing her profound contributions to midwifery, reproductive justice, and health equity; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we extend our deepest condolences to her family, friends, colleagues, and all who were blessed to know and work alongside her; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Midwives of Color Council commits to carrying forward her vision and values by continuing the work of advancing equity, supporting midwives of color, and advocating for respectful, culturally centered care for all; and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that this resolution be entered into the official records of the Midwives of Color Council and shared in her memory as a lasting tribute to a life of purpose, service, and impact.
